Wendy S. Painting holds a PhD in American Studies from the University of Buffalo. Her extensive investigatory research into Timothy McVeigh and the 1995 Oklahoma City bombing has been credited in various published works, including Roger Charles' 2012 publication: OKC: What The Investigation Missed and Why It Matters. Painting co-authored and co-produced the 2011 documentary film, A Noble Lie: Oklahoma City 1995. The film exposes information never before brought to the attention of the American public. Painting works as a freelance investigatory researcher, college history teacher and is currently working on a second book, REDACTED.

Holland Vandennieuwenhof is an Oklahoma native and assisted the Oklahoma Bombing Investigation Committee in their efforts to uncover and expose evidence being suppressed by authorities who were invested in the official story. He served as Dr. Wendy Painting's partner in a number of investigative assignments and co-wrote and co-produced with her an award-winning documentary on the bombing. Holland served in the U.S. Marines as an infantryman, is a former radio talk show host and has been a frequent guest on hundreds of programs covering a variety of topics including the OKC bombing. Holland currently works at Brave New Books, the world's only underground conspiracy bookstore, in Austin, TX. <http://www.bravenewbookstore.com/>

Videos Made: A Noble Lie: Oklahoma City 1995 (Free Mind Films, 2011)

Presenting startling new biographical details about Timothy McVeigh and exposing stark contradictions and errors contained in previous depictions of the "All-American Terrorist," this book traces McVeigh's life from childhood to the Army, throughout the plot to bomb the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building and the period after his 1995 arrest until his 2001 execution.

McVeigh's life, as author Wendy Painting describes it, offers a backdrop for her discussion of not only several intimate and previously unknown details about him, but a number of episodes and circumstances in American History as well, including Cold War popular culture, all-American apocalyptic fervor, organized racism, contentious politics, militarism, warfare, conspiracy theories, bioethical controversies, mind control, the media's construction of villains and demons, and institutional secrecy and cover-ups.

All of these stories are examined, compared, and tested in Aberration in the Heartland of the Real, making this book a much closer examination into the personality and life of Timothy McVeigh than has been provided by any other biographical work about him.

STRAWMAN

Who is STRAWMAN? We are three Torontonians 'thought criminals' – JP, Joe and Duff. With a keen sense of humour, we love to create and perform progressive music. Why the name STRAWMAN?

Well we all have one – to find yours you need look no further than at your birth certificate or at the all-caps name on your phone bill. A STRAWMAN represents you and me, however, it's an entirely different incorporated identity that you may not even know exists. Our music looks to bring meaning to this faceless entity.

Leonard Ulrich : NWO, Illusion of Money

Leonard Ulrich : NWO, Illusion of Money

Ulrich provides us with history lessons that will convince us conspiracies are real, and that the USA is falling prey to illuminati in our allegiance to a zionist war on terror just like the Christians fell for the Nazis in their frenzy to stop communism .
. JFKennedy and George Washington believed in a global illuminati conspiracy; 28% of USA believe that a secret elite power with a globalist agenda is conspiring to rule the world.
. Ulrich provides evidence that every USA war has been motivated by lies, falseflag attacks, and deliberate self-sacrifices or gambits all to popularize wars that will profit only the international bankers and military contractors -- wars that will boa-constrict us into WWII and then into the one-world governance; because, only one government survives that

Dawn Schiller The Road Through Wonderland: Surviving John Holmes

The Road Through Wonderland: Surviving John Holmes

DAWN SCHILLER

Dawn Schiller was fifteen years old in 1976, when her family moved into an apartment complex managed by 32-year-old porn star John Holmes. Holmes courted Dawn, had sex with her, and manipulated her with drugs and alcohol. Holmes physically and emotionally abused Dawn for several years while prostituting her on the streets of Hollywood, brothels and to drug dealers. After the famed Wonderland murders in 1981, they fled to Florida, where she ultimately broke free and turned him over to the police.

For more than fifteen years, Dawn has been a survivor leader in the anti-trafficking, domestic violence and sexual assault movements as a speaker, trainer, and author. She domestic violence and sexual assault movements as a speaker, writer, and editor. She has worked as an associate producer and consultant on the movie "Wonderland" where she was portrayed by actress Kate Bosworth and John Holmes was played by actor Val Kilmer. Dawn taught women's studies and activism at Oregon State University and has developed national presentations titled "Our Throwaway Teens – Who Are They and How Can We Help?" and "The Faces of Trafficking—Combating Sexual Exploitation of Youth in America," that seeks to raise awareness of the vulnerabilities of a teen who grows up in an abusive and neglected environment. She educates audiences on what a teen might be experiencing internally when targeted and groomed by a predator, how to identify a young victim in trouble, pedophile/pimp seduction techniques, the use of drugs to manipulate and trap a victim, and the multiple ways she was trafficked. She gives an inside view of what it's like to be a vulnerable, or "throwaway" teen and how we, as a community, can help.

Dawn is also, the proud parent of a beautiful daughter. She earned her undergraduate degree summa cum laude in 2012 at Eastern Oregon University with honors in communication and gender studies. She served on the committee to revise the University's Sexual Harassment Policy and received the Women of Vision and Courage award from the President's Commission on the Status of Women (PCSW). After gaining a full tuition teaching fellowship from Oregon State University she will defend her Master of Arts in Women's Studies in the Spring 2016. She has served as a board member for Shelter From the Storm, has founded the non-profit E.S.T.E.A.M., (Empowering Successful Teens through Education, Awareness & Mentoring), dedicated to assisting teens that are struggling to find a safe and successful path to adulthood and developed the "Mirrors of Me" girl's art, writing and mentoring camp for at-risk and marginalized youth.

Nationally, Dawn is a consultant with the U.S. Department of Justice Office for Victims of Crime Training and Technical Assistance Center (TTAC.) She sits on the Education Committee and is an advisory board member for the National Center of Victims of Crime out of Washington, D.C., The Americans Overseas Domestic Violence Crisis Center and Voices Set Free. She is a member of the National Survivor Network (NSN) and Survivor 2 Survivor (S2S) for trafficking victims. She has represented Val Kilmer in New York for the Volvo For Life Awards in both 2006 and 2008. Most importantly, Dawn spent over six years completing her memoir, The Road Through Wonderland, detailing her journey of survival (August 2010, Medallion Press.) Nominated for the R.O.S.E. (Regaining Ones Self Esteem) award in 2007, 2008, and 2009, and the Sunshine Peace Award 2010. Dawn is an active member in her recovery program and celebrates 18 years clean and sober in 2016.

Dawn shares her compelling story of abuse, trafficking and survival in her presentations and trainings to inspire and motivate communities across the United States. For information on Dawn, her book, or to have Dawn speak at your event, please contact her at Dawn@EmpowerTeens.com.

AVAILABLE NOW! Autographed books: "The Road Through Wonderland" by Dawn Schiller. 10% of your purchase will be directly donated to help organize our third "Mirrors of Me" Girls Art, Writing and Mentoring Camp.
